

39th Annual EANGTN State Conference

Business Session, Saturday, 23 April 2016 at 8:30 a.m.

Introducing our Keynote Speaker

TN House of Representatives, Dr. John Forgety

Representative John Forgety is currently serving his third term as a Representative in the Tennessee House of Representatives. Prior to becoming a State Representative, Dr. Forgety spent 40 years within the public school system in roles as a high school teacher, football and wrestling coach, assistant principal, principal, and then went on to work for 16 years as Superintendent of Schools with McMinn County. Additionally, Representative Forgety is a retired 1SG from the TN Army National Guard, where he served our Great State for a little over 20 years. When he retired, he was serving as the 1SG for HHT/278th ACR. His call sign was Smokey 7. Representative Forgety has been married to Mrs. Faye Forgety for 30 years and they have two children and several grandchildren.

Representative Forgety's address will focus on “NCO's Leading the Way.”
